CHARLOTTE, NC

The Queen City, with a population of 1.2 million, is the 19th largest city in the United States. In addition to serving as one of the country's major banking centers, Charlotte offers many attractions, including the National Whitewater Training Center, the Mint Museum of Art, world-class golf courses, Bank of America Stadium (home of the Carolina Panthers), Time Warner Cable Arena (home of the Charlotte Bobcats) and the Blumenthal Performing Arts Center.

Located five minutes from uptown Charlotte, Carolinas Medical Center (CMC) is a state-of-the-art facility offering excellence in healthcare. Organized in 1940 as Charlotte Memorial Hospital, CMC has now grown to an 808-bed tertiary/quaternary hospital, with the recent addition of Levine Children's Hospital, the largest pediatric hospital between Atlanta and Washington DC. In 2010, CMC was named the Region's Most Preferred Hospital for the 13th time in 15 years. The Joint Commission recently honored CMC with the prestigious Ernest Amory Codman Award.
